

SUMMER DAYS STIR WOMEN TO VARIED FORMS OF ACTIVITY AND REST

St. Paul's churchyard proves a welcome retreat for downtown workers who seek quiet.

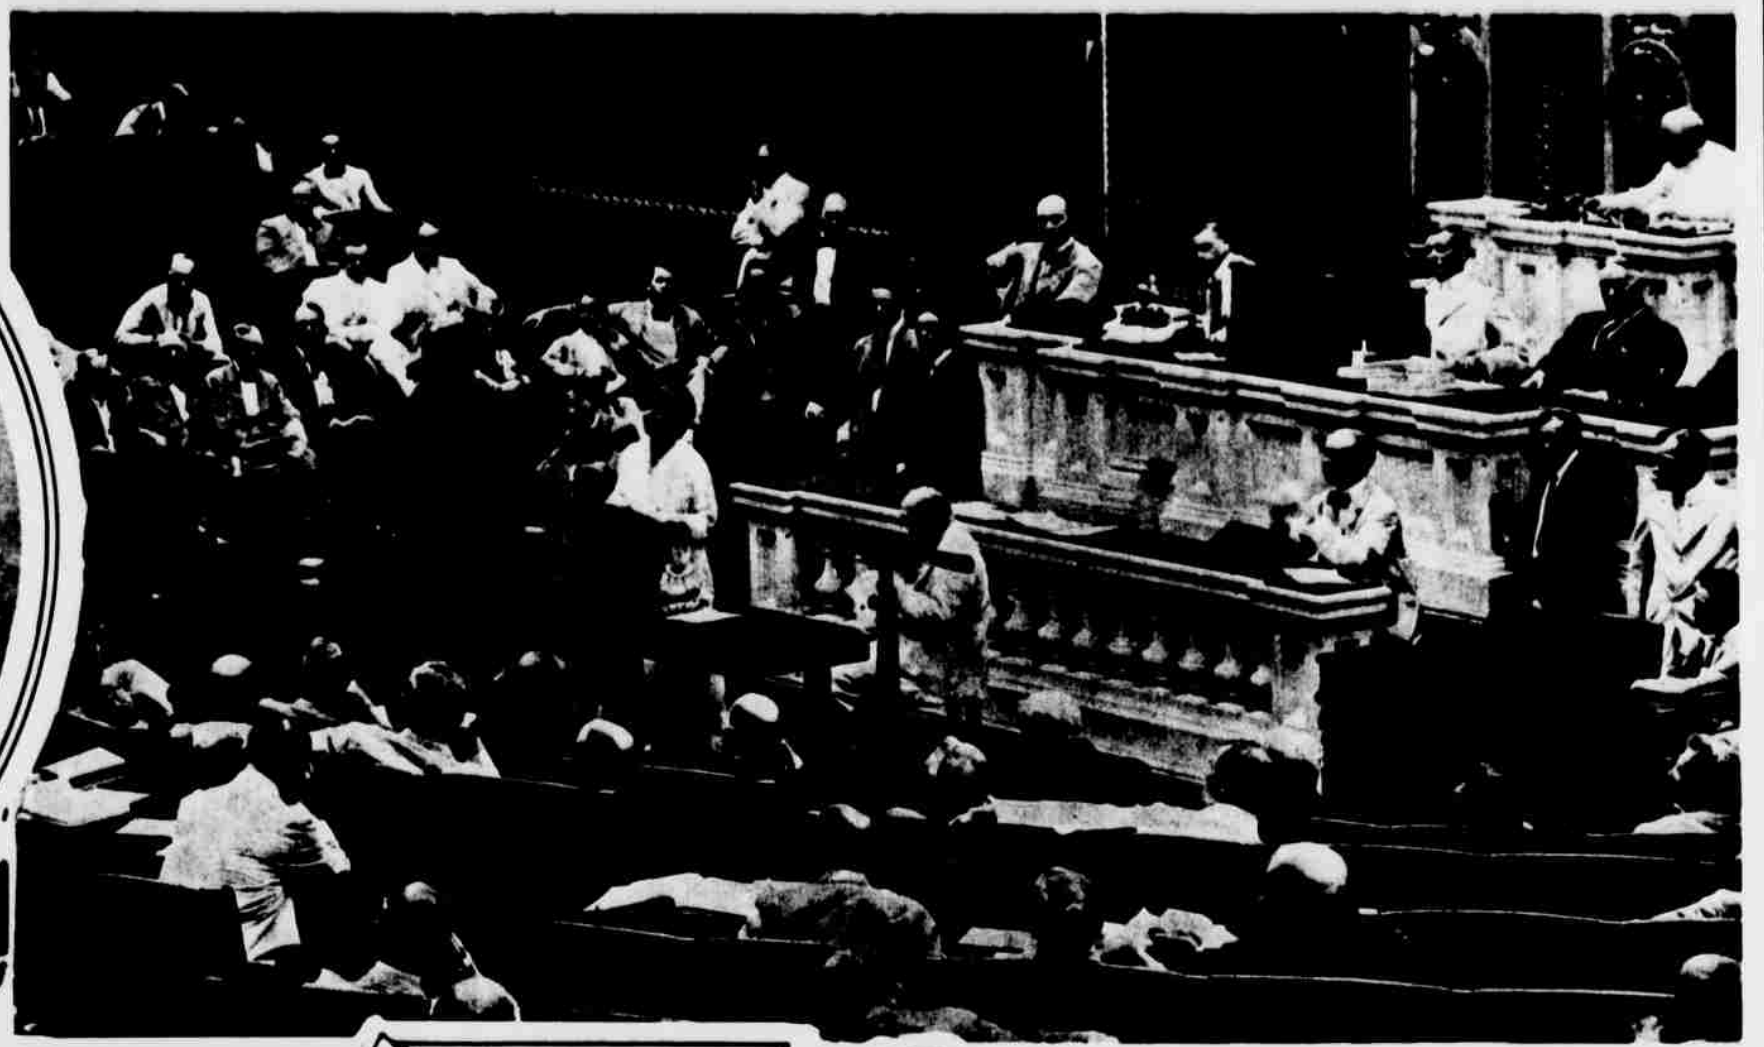

Photo C. V. Buck.

Many a stenographer who sees little of the country from one year's end to another has luncheon in St. Paul's churchyard and rests there in her recreation hour.

Miss Jeannette Rankin, "the lady from Montana," urging Congress to take control of the copper mines tied up by strikes as a defence measure. It was her first set speech.

Photos by Paul Thompson.

Writing letters home is a favorable rest period pastime among the girl farm workers at Bedford Hills, N. Y.

Above — Hoeing potatoes in the hot sun, despite the pleasant company, is not much fun. It's only one of many tasks at Bedford Hills, where girls run a big farm.

Dieticians at the Bedford Hills farm preparing dinner for their sister workers in the fields.

Photos copyright by Underwood & Underwood.